

GRAMMAR BURST:

APOSTROPHES FOR POSSESSION

Circle the nouns in each sentence which are plural and add an apostrophe where it is needed.

Grandpas stories are always entertaining.

Ben cut the strawberries tops off.

All of the womens paintings were interesting.

Although there were only two of them, the pigs mess covered the buildings floor.

Freds chair needed fixing.

The adverts jingles were all stuck in my head during yesterdays trip into town.

The painters brushes needed a good wash.

Correct the punctuation in these sentences where necessary.

The student's lunches were prepared in the morning.

Harry's haircut meant that we could see his eyes.

The car's tyres were covered in mud.

The lion chased it's prey for ages.

After a week of eating the cooks dinner's, I decided to make my make my own sandwiches.

The childrens talent show was very entertaining.

The mens' shirts were very messy.

Rewrite the words below in the possessive form, and place them in a complete sentence.

Example: The food that belonged to the dog → The cat ate the dog's food.

The phone that belonged to Anna

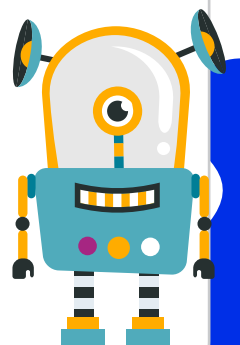

The house that belongs to our neighbours

The sandwich that belongs to the bus driver.

The football match that is played by the men

The playground that belongs to the children

The hat that belongs to Mr Jones

Look at this picture. Can you write a five-sentence story about it? One of your sentences must include a possessive apostrophe with a plural noun.

